A message from our curate Angelo

Dear Church,

In our recent Discipleship Preaching Series, we have been reminded of the importance of walking together in faith.

We began with the reminder to remain connected to the vine. This image speaks not only of our relationship with God, but also of our connection to one another. Just as branches draw life and nourishment from the plant, so we find our growth when we stay rooted in Christ, fostering a deeper connection with each other.

Following this, Graham's message encouraged us to reflect on our shared calling as both shepherds and those being shepherded. And that Discipleship is not a solo activity; it is something we do side by side. And last week, Hannah built on this idea by reminding us that Evangelism is not just about words, but about living life together. When we open our lives to others, we create space for God's love to be seen and experienced. That way Evangelism becomes less of a task and more a way of life sharing with others.

Finally, in this time of vacancy let us commit to supporting one another more intentionally. Together, as one body, we can journey forward in faith, encouraging and strengthening each other, our beloved brothers and sisters.
