A message from our curate Angelo

Dear church,

As we approach a high point in our church calendar, the joy of Palm Sunday and the hope of Easter Day fill our hearts. We'd like to invite you to join us today Thursday 26th, from 7-9pm, for a special reading of the Gospel of Mark. This simple yet powerful gathering offers space to pause, reflect, and journey together through the story of Jesus' life, ministry, suffering, and resurrection. Mark's Gospel is distinctive in its urgency, moving "immediately" from one moment to the next and presenting Jesus in a very compelling way.

And continuing our Holy Week journey, please remember our other events like the Maundy Thursday gatherings, the Good Friday 'Walk of Witness' through the streets of Ealing, and the 'Hour at the Cross' prayers at 2pm on Good Friday, as we come together to reflect on the meaning of the cross.

In the midst of busy lives, these moments give us an opportunity to slow down, gather in community, and prepare our hearts for Easter with intention and hope. All are welcome, and we would love you to join us.

Many blessings
Revd Angelo Lebrato
