A message from our curate Rev Angelo Lebrato

Greetings Church,

Prayer truly has been at the heart of life here at St John's this past month. Over recent weeks, it has been a real highlight. Yesterday especially was filled with opportunities to pray, from our 8am Zoom prayer meeting, to the midweek service, and concluding with our 8pm in-person prayer gathering. It was a day rich in connection with God and with one another.

As we continue through this week, we also pause for a more reflective moment, since this Friday, we will gather to give thanks for the life of Viv Hopkins. Please do keep Chris, along with her family and friends, in your prayers during this time.

Let us continue to be people of prayer, morning, noon, and night. As Andy reminded us a few weeks ago, "Prayer is not an action, but rather a state of being."

Have a blessed rest of the week,
Revd Angelo
