A message from Rev Jane Morris

Called to be a People of Prayer

Thy Kingdom Come is a global movement of prayer that is happening over these coming ten days leading up to Pentecost. Here in St John's we are in a season where God is calling us to seek Him with all our hearts. One of the calls to prayer is for each person to pray for five people 'who have not yet responded with their 'Yes' to God's call'. I wonder who those might be for each of us?

Can I commend our prayer walk which is happening at 10.30am on Saturday 23 May. We will walk and pray around our Parish as well as a 'stay and pray' at the same time in the church lounge. Let's be people of prayer as we walk around our community.
